

Friends of Robert Yamada Benefit Dinner and Auction

February 12th, 2010

Northern Quest Resort and Casino

Hosted by: Mark Rypien and Mark Peterson

Doors open at 5:30 PM

Robert is a bright 21 year old who was very active in outdoor sports. His life severely changed on August 13th. 2009 when he dove into familiar waters which resulted in fractured vertebrae and spinal cord damage. Robert is currently paralyzed from the neck down and is dependent on a ventilator.

Come join Robert's family and friends in a night of fun. All funds raised will be used to purchase adaptive equipment and medical supplies needed for his care and independence.

We look forward to seeing you there!
